

Shifting Agendas- FINAL REMINDER!

PSA (UK) Women & Politics International Conference

February 19, 2010 @ The University of Manchester, UK

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Paisley Currah (CUNY) and Wendy Smooth (OSU)

Other Confirmed Speakers include:

Anil Al-Rebholz, University of Frankfurt
Claire Annesley, University of Manchester
Jon Binne, Manchester Metropolitan University
Valerie Bryson, University of Huddersfield
Karen Celis, University College Ghent
Sarah Childs, University of Bristol
Ryan Combs, University of Manchester
Daniel Conway, Loughborough University
Elizabeth Evans, University of Bristol
Francesca Gains, University of Manchester
Toni Johnson, University of Kent
Kelly Kollman, University of Glasgow
Christian Klesse, Manchester Metropolitan University
Susana López Penedo, Complutense University, Madrid
Rosa Malley, University of Bristol
Hanne Martinek, Uppsala University, Sweden
Rainbow Murray, Queen Mary, University of London
Penny Miles, Cardiff University
David Paternotte, Universite Libre de Bruxelles/University of Cambridge
Line Predelli, Loughborough University
Heike Raab, University of Innsbruck
Sandra Resodihardjo, Leiden University
Chuluun Ulziisaikhan, National University of Mongolia
Rosario Undurraga, University of Warwick
Doris Urbanek, University of Vienna
Tania Verge, University of Pompeu Fabra

This international conference showcases gender research in the discipline of Politics that works across identity boundaries in order to incorporate conceptions of intersectionality in policy, institutions and party politics, international relations, European politics and feminist theory. Themes of this day conference focus on 'conserving feminism', 'sexuality & politics' and more broadly on 'intersectionality in policy and theorizing'.

For more details and to register visit:

www.socialsciences.manchester.ac.uk/disciplines/politics/events/shiftingagendas/

Conference Registration Deadline Extended: 26th January 2010